

“Love Without the Small Print” by Sarah Joiner
Questions to consider, discuss or journal.

1. What is your experience with LGBTQ+ people in your faith community? In your daily life?
2. Have you ever loved someone knowing there were terms and conditions? Have you been on the flip side with others using the “small print” as an excuse not to love and include you?
3. Do you fear being rejected by your faith community? Why? How does this affect your experience attending church?
4. What steps can you take to provide unconditional love to members of your faith community?
5. What would it look like to create space in our faith communities for honest, compassionate conversations on matters of sexuality and gender?
6. How do you define Christian love?
7. What examples of the love that Jesus showed to the people in his life do you find the most powerful? How can you demonstrate this love practically in your life?
8. How can your ecclesia become a safe space in loving how Jesus loved?
