

Holy Living Today

by David (Zazz) Oosthuizen

Questions to consider, discuss or journal

What does holiness mean on a day-to-day bases in your life? What does it look like in your actions? In your relationships? Your ecclesia?

Have you experienced this calling to be Holy? Was is a process or was there a specific event?

“As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ” I Peter 2:5

What are the challenges in striving to live a holy life?

The writer discusses his experiences of being a “Christian Pharisee”. What does this mean to you? Have you experienced this in your walk?

How do you practice separateness from darkness while still being dedicated in your mission to love your neighbour? Has your religion ever prevented you from loving your neighbour?

“You are the light of the world.” Matthew 5:14
