

Jacob at Bethel

by Adam Byrnes

Questions to consider, discuss or journal.

What moments in your life have changed your discipleship?

Have you considered the description of Jacob in Gen. 25 as a quiet man, dwelling in tents? What stood out to you from the author's explanation?

"Surely the LORD is in this place — and I did not know it! ... How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven." Gen 28:16-17

Have you had a Jacob at Bethel experience, a moment of epiphany of the presence of God?

What do you do when you need to reset or reboot spiritually?

Consider the three spiritual visuals presented in this article: Hands. Tent. Ladder.

What are your hands most busy with? Is it self-determination or spiritual trust?

Do you live in a tent? Where are you spiritually focused and spiritually belong?

Is your primary spiritual connection direct to God or via an alternative place/person/organisation?

"Jacob met God at Bethel, and there God spoke with us." Hos 12:4
